

HVE

PART A – 2 MARKS

1. Define Democratic Values.

- Democratic values are principles that support democracy.
- They protect citizens' rights and freedom.
- They promote equality and justice.
- They encourage participation and mutual respect.

Example: Equality before law.

2. What is Pluralism?

- Pluralism means accepting diversity in society.
- It recognizes different religions and cultures.
- It respects different opinions and lifestyles.
- It promotes peaceful coexistence.

Example: Different religions living peacefully in India.

3. Why is Respect for All essential in promoting harmony?

- It recognizes the dignity of every person.
- It prevents discrimination.
- It encourages mutual understanding.
- It promotes peaceful relationships.

Example: Respecting another person's religion.

4. Explain the concept of Economic Freedom.

- Economic freedom means freedom to make economic choices.
- People can choose their occupation or business.
- They can own and use property according to law.
- It encourages entrepreneurship and competition.

Example: Starting a small business.

5. Which became potent symbols of India's struggle for freedom and unity?

- The Indian National Flag became a symbol of national unity.
- Vande Mataram inspired patriotic feelings.
- Satyagraha became a symbol of peaceful resistance.
- Khadi and the Charkha represented self-reliance.

Example: Charkha used in the Swadeshi movement.

6. What is Economic Freedom?

- It gives individuals freedom in economic activities.
- People can choose their occupation.
- People can participate in business and trade.
- Such freedom is subject to laws and regulations.

Example: Choosing to become an entrepreneur.

7. Explain the importance of Separation of Powers in a democracy.

- Power is divided among different organs of government.
- Legislature makes laws.
- Executive implements laws.
- Judiciary interprets laws and provides checks and balances.

Example: Courts can review government actions.

8. Define Fraternity in India.

- Fraternity means a feeling of brotherhood.
- It promotes unity among citizens.
- It respects the dignity of individuals.
- It encourages cooperation and social harmony.

Example: Communities helping each other during floods.

9. State the Rule of Law.

- Rule of law means everyone is subject to law.
- No person is above the law.
- Government must also follow the law.
- It protects equality and individual rights.

Example: Officials can be held accountable for unlawful actions.

10. List the Principles of Pluralism.

- Acceptance of diversity.
- Equal respect for different groups.
- Tolerance of different opinions.
- Equal participation in society.

Example: Respecting different religious festivals.

11. What is Citizen Participation in Governance?

- It means citizens taking part in government activities.
- Voting is an important form of participation.
- Citizens can express opinions on public issues.

- They can participate through local bodies and public discussions.

Example: Voting in elections.

12. What are the Rights to Freedom of Expression?

- Right to express opinions and ideas.
- Right to communicate information.
- Right to peaceful discussion and criticism.
- Right to participate in public debate, subject to lawful restrictions.

Example: Criticizing a government policy peacefully.

13. List the Three Main Ideas of the French Revolution.

- Liberty – freedom of individuals.
- Equality – equal rights and status.
- Fraternity – brotherhood and unity.
- These became important democratic principles.

Example: “Liberty, Equality, Fraternity.”

14. What is the Significance of the French Revolution in World History?

- Challenged absolute monarchy.
 - Promoted liberty and equality.
 - Reduced traditional privileges.
 - Influenced democratic movements worldwide.
- Example: Inspired later movements for political rights.

15. Write a Short Note on Indian Freedom Movement.

- It was a struggle against British colonial rule.
- It involved leaders and ordinary citizens.
- Major methods included non-violence and civil disobedience.
- It resulted in Indian independence in 1947.

Example: Quit India Movement, 1942.

16. Explain the Concept of Secular Values.

- Secular values promote equality among citizens.
- They support freedom of belief and conscience.
- They oppose religious discrimination.
- They encourage tolerance and mutual respect.

Example: Equal treatment of all religions.

17. What is Dissociation of a State from Religion?

- It means the state does not identify with one religion.

- Government should treat different religions fairly.
- Citizens should enjoy freedom of religion.
- Public policies should protect equal citizenship.
Example: Government services available to all religions.

18. How does the Indian Constitution promote non-discriminatory practices among various faiths?

- It guarantees equality before law.
- It prohibits discrimination on specified grounds.
- It protects freedom of religion.
- It protects cultural and religious rights.
Example: Citizens can practice their religion subject to law.

19. Explain Secularism in the Context of Indian Democracy and Governance.

- India does not have an official state religion.
- All citizens have equal constitutional status.
- Freedom of religion is protected.
- The state can act to protect rights and social reform.
Example: Equal government services for all communities.

20. How do Secular Values Promote Inclusivity in Diverse, Multi-Religious Societies?

- They promote equal citizenship.
- They prevent religious discrimination.
- They protect freedom of belief.
- They encourage tolerance and cooperation.
Example: Equal opportunities for different religious groups.

21. How can Schools Promote Secular Values while Respecting Individual Freedom of Belief?

- Teach equality and constitutional values.
- Respect students' different beliefs.
- Avoid religious discrimination.
- Encourage dialogue and mutual respect.
Example: Students learning about India's cultural diversity.

22. Explain how Secular Humanism contributes to Ethical Decision-Making.

- It focuses on human dignity and welfare.
- It uses reason and critical thinking.
- It promotes empathy and fairness.

- It considers the effects of actions on others.

Example: Rejecting workplace discrimination because it is unfair.

23. What are the Challenges Faced by Individuals Upholding Secular Values in Deeply Religious Societies?

- They may face social pressure.
- Misunderstandings about secularism may occur.
- Religious polarization can create difficulties.
- Balancing personal beliefs and public neutrality can be challenging.

Example: Supporting equal treatment of all religions despite community pressure.

24. How do Secular Values Deal with the “Common Good” Compared to Religious Ethical Frameworks?

- Secular values focus on shared human interests.
- Decisions are based on reason and public welfare.
- They seek principles acceptable to people of different beliefs.
- Religious ethics may derive moral guidance from religious teachings.

Example: Public health policies protecting everyone.

25. List the Advantages and Disadvantages of Secularism.

Advantages:

- Promotes equality.
- Protects religious freedom.
- Reduces religious discrimination.
- Encourages social harmony.

Disadvantages/Challenges:

- May be misunderstood as anti-religious.
- Difficult to maintain neutrality in conflicts.
- Religious groups may feel ignored if poorly implemented.
- Balancing religion and public policy can be challenging.

Example: Equal treatment of different faiths.

26. What is Secular Humanism, and how does it contribute to Ethical Decision-Making?

- Secular humanism is a non-religious ethical approach.
- It emphasizes human dignity and welfare.
- It uses reason and evidence in decision-making.
- It promotes empathy, justice and responsibility.

Example: Helping a person because of human compassion.

27. How can Individuals Practice Ethical Decision-Making Based on Secular Values in Everyday Life?

- Treat everyone equally.
- Respect different beliefs and opinions.
- Use reason before making decisions.
- Consider how actions affect others.

Example: Refusing to discriminate against a classmate.

28. Compare the Indian and Western Models of Secularism.

- Indian model: Emphasizes equal respect for different religions.
- Western model: Often emphasizes stronger separation between religion and state.
- India may allow state interaction with religion for social reform.
- Both protect religious freedom and oppose religious domination.

Example: India protects multiple religious communities equally.